Here East Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, Stratford, E20 3BS

Location

Within easy reach of two major stations, a free shuttle bus and well connected to cycle paths, Here East is easily found

East London's Private Office & coworking space for startups and scaleups giving you access into the Plexal community: a group of people who are using technology to solve some of society's biggest challenges.

Description

Purpose-built for innovation Our workspace has been designed to resemble a mini-city, so we have our very own indoor park, private phone booths, high street, town hall and workshop space for rapid prototyping (which comes stocked with 3D printers and scanners).

Because we believe innovators need two things: opportunities to connect with people and space to think or create in quiet. And cities do both those things – which is why they've been hotbeds of innovation for thousands of years.
