

27/31 Clerkenwell Close, Clerkenwell, EC1R 0AT

Location

Situated in the heart of Farringdon and formerly an artisan workshop, Clerkenwell Workshops retains its historical charm whilst boasting a range of bright and modern office and studio space that wrap around a central courtyard.

Description

Stripped back studios with wooden floorboards, exposed industrial details and large windows ensure that Clerkenwell Workshops continues to inspire the traditional craft and design businesses that give the area its eclectic flavour, but also attracts new media, design, and architectural companies.

The building is home to a co-working space, a range of high-spec and bookable meeting rooms with plug and play technology and a café who source locally and cook seasonally. Clerkenwell Workshops has also achieved a Gold WiredScore award, in recognition of the building's reliable and resilient fibre connectivity.
