The Building

Built in an Art Deco style in 1936, The Beehive has a distinctive presence in the Gatwick area and is well known for being one of the first airport terminals in the UK. Preserving the interior design through the ages, you'll benefit from ample natural light and a range of first class amenities. The building has even received an Aeronautical Heritage award, highlighting its contribution to the art and science of aeronautics.

Alongside the multiple sizes of Private Office Space this centre has four well-equipped meeting rooms which can cater for up to 10 people.

The Location

Located on the northern tip of the beautiful county of Sussex is its close proximity to Gatwick Airport. The Beehive also has excellent connections to central London via train, bus and motorway.

Building Highlights

- Secure on Site Car Parking
- Managed Reception & Meeting Rooms
- A/C offices
