32 Threadneedle Street, Bank, EC2R 8AY

Location

Set on the same street as the Bank of England our serviced offices in Threadneedle Street are unsurprisingly very popular with businesses connected to the finance and banking industry.

Description

This stunning new business centre is set in the building which initially operated as the Bank of New South Wales and still has the original bank vault from the late 1880s. The complete refurbishment has created a modern and highly impressive office environment featuring super-fast dedicated broadband and the very latest technology throughout. The very generous reception and communal space opens on to the spacious offices, with onsite meeting rooms and a gymnasium exclusively for client use.

Key Features

- No deposits and no up-front costs
- Free local and national telephone calls
- Super-fast dedicated broadband internet

Rent: From £670.00 per workstation, per month

Area: 60 sqft – 2500 sqft (approx.)

Workstations: 1 – 100 employees
