Hudson House, Tavistock Street, Covent Garden, WC2E 7PP

Beautiful Workspace – designed not only to accommodate, but also to Inspire!

Location

On a quiet corner tucked away from the hubbub of Covent Garden, you will find Hudson House, a grand, Grade II listed property designed by Edwin Lutyens in 1904. The impressive site is home to dazzling meeting rooms and office suites.

Covent Garden and Leicester Square underground stations are close by, while Charing Cross station is within short walking distance.

Description

With ornate fixings, high ceilings and gorgeous Georgian windows, you would be hard pressed to find a more elegant backdrop for your business. Hudson House's interior has been finished to the highest standard, and features gems like original fireplaces and entrance ways.

We'd be delighted to show you this location with a personal tour.
