WeWork

Shearton House, 16 Great Chapel Street, Soho, W1F 8FL

Location

Situated five-minute walk from Oxford Street and Tottenham Court Road Underground stations and is directly across from the new Tottenham Court Road entrance for Crossrail, a train line that speeds across the city into surrounding areas.

This office space is perfect for any company that wants a central location with quick access to areas like Victoria and Mayfair.

Description

Once home to the London College of Contemporary Arts, this London office space has long corridors lined with offices that call to mind an art gallery. The entire flexible office & coworking space, from the basement to the fifth floor, is dog-friendly and has a warm, relaxing vibe.

There are lots of amenities, from a screening room for six people to a game room to a rooftop terrace with comfy furnishings. Shearton House attracts a mix of companies, including real estate, technology, and media companies focused on film and music.
