TOG

The Shard, 32 London Bridge Street, London Bridge, SE1 9SG

An experience a little better than 'another day in the office'.

Location

Located directly opposite London Bridge Tube and Train Station, The Shard building features office space along with 3 restaurants, multiple bars, a hotel and a viewing platform on the top floor.

Southwark is the historical home of the capital's arts and entertainments industry. London's first theatres, the Globe - home to Shakespeare's plays.

Description

If there's one building that speaks for itself, it's The Shard. The office floors are on levels 24 and 25 (the highest office floor is level 28). Stunning views across London in a building that is recognised globally

Architects Archer Humphreys (responsible for The Standard Hotel in New York and the Chiltern Firehouse in Marylebone) designed to create the space that highlights the extraordinary views wherever possible with a warm palette of materials and colour for a more intimate environment than you might otherwise expect in this building.

This building has offices, event space and meeting rooms that provide an experience a little better than 'another day in the office'.
